

Position Title: SAGD Directional Drilling Consultant

Position Location: Alberta, Canada (field work)

Reports to: SAGD Operations Manager

Position Overview

The SAGD Directional Drilling Consultant will be responsible for precision wellbore placement in a SAGD environment. This role requires a strong understanding of formation evaluation, anti-collision, precise well placement and will act as a subject matter expert of directional drilling principles and applications. The successful candidate will have effective communication and leadership skills to lead with experience in this line of service.

Responsibilities

- Support pre/post well and project planning
- Collaborate with Pacesetter's SAGD operations team; provide the status of equipment, personnel, and current operations
- Support Pacesetter's values in regards to quality of services, technology, and HSE
- Complete project reporting and field process development
- Plan, prepare, and coordinate well site operations
- Perform assigned reporting and administrative duties for field operations accurately and on schedule

Education, Experience, Technical Qualifications

- 5+ years of directional drilling field experience, with a minimum of 3 years in the SAGD market
- Must be eligible to work in Canada
- Ability to communicate effectively and have strong analytical and problem solving skills
- Experience with well planning and BHA modelling is required
- Proficiency with multiple versions of directional drilling software and a willingness to learn company specific software applications
- Values accuracy and has high standards around quality of work
- Assures adherence to all industry safety regulations

If you are interested in applying for this consulting position please send your resume and cover letter with subject line "SAGD DD Consultant" to careers@pacesetterdirectional.ca. Suitable candidates will be contacted.